Cancellation Policy:

If a student is unable to attend a class, a full refund will be offered with at least fourteen (14) days advanced notice from the start date of the class. If the cancellation time frame is less than fourteen (14) days, the student can have the full amount credited to them in form of a training credit for a future class hosted through Future Focus Forensics. The certificate can be used by the student or by a member of the student's organization. If the cancellation time frame is less than fourteen (14) days, but more than seven (7) days before the start of the course, and the student does not want a full training credit, the student will be refunded 50% of the payment. If the cancellation is seven (7) days or less, or the student is a no show, no refunds will be given. There are no refunds or partial refunds given if a student attends class, but is absent certain hours or days for other obligations.

If there is an unforeseen emergency, specifically a medical emergency, a death in the family, or a subpoena, that requires the student to be absent for the entire class Future Focus Forensics will consider a full refund with specific documentation. Partial refunds will not be given for missed hours or days.

Accommodations:

Please contact Future Focus Forensics, prior to the start of a course, if a student needs specific accommodations due to a disability. Information regarding accommodations will be confidential.
